EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Admiral Avelan went on board the flagship of the Baltic fleet on August 14 and since then the ships have weighed anchor and got as far as that last refuge in the Baltic Sea, Liban, where, so far as we know, they still remain collecting barnacles and sea weed. Four months ago we ventured the prophecy that they would never start for the Far East at all and we are still confident that if they do start, they will never reach Vladivostok. Where are they to go?

It has been said that collisions have been sent ahead, but that has to be seen

Russia herself has declared not to be absolutely contraband, and on her own principle it would be impossible for any neutral port to supply coal to war ships of either belligerent to the obvious detriment of the other. We could not maintain a pretence of neutrality if we helped one part on the road to meet the other. If a Russian fleet were permitted to coal, say at Singapore, it would be difficult to prove to our friends the Japanese that we had not given vital assistance to their enemies. Our special cablegram today announces that the Russian cruiser Tavris has got to Las Palmas on a southerly voyage. It will be interesting to learn whether she is bound, and why. Is it reinforcement for the raiders? A sharp eye will have to be kept upon Russia or she will mix some other power up in the mess for a certainty.

Principal Ruiny is on a fighter for the threshold of his eightieth year (he was born in 1826) and yet he is girding himself for yet another battle. The friend and successor of such men as Chalmers and Candlish, who struck the great blow for spiritual independence in 1843, he has for the latter half of his days been striving earnestly for the success now shaken by the decision of the House of Lords.

The decision was legal. Indeed it would hardly be going too far to call it frankly Erastian, and it is completely repugnant to all Disruption ideas. One of Dr. Rainy's supporters in the current issue of To Day writes of the 1900 union, when the Free Church amalgamated with the United Presbyterians, 'Why should they not?

Both held the same doctrine.' Un-happily neither of these statements is correct. The Confession of Faith disposes of one, as shown by Lord Haliburton, and as for the former, no man can be independent of State control so long as he has the custody of trust funds. There may be web-blers who will follow the funds back to the Wee Kirk, but it is hardly likely they will be many. The well meant offer of the Archbishop is impracticable as yet, while Dr. Rainy is in fighting form, and Moderator McQueen is still eager for the pound of flesh. But Scots are canny and a way will be found though onlookers can see none as yet.

The China Review says that General

Kuropatkin was not in command at the battle of Liaoyang, in which there were only 100,000 Russian troops engaged at least.

NOTHING LIKE EXPERIENCE.

One truth learned by actual experience does more good than ten experience lessons. Tell a man that Chamberlain's Cholera, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will cure cholera morbus, and he will most likely forget it before the end of the day. Let him have a severe attack of that disease, feel that he is about to die, use this remedy, and learn from his own experience how quickly it gives relief, and he will remember it all his life. For sale secret societies there.

Legation, Bangkok, of the approaching marriage of Mr. John Douglas Dossan, of the Chartered Bank, with Miss Mary Agnes

Chamber of Commerce, held on September 8, the secretary announced that Messrs

Agard Thoresen and Co., and Messrs Midzushima and Co. had been elected members.

The Italian Convent.

A sale of work was opened at the Italian Convent yesterday afternoon in aid of the funds of that institution. Many beautiful samples of work, turned out by the children, were under offer and attracted the attention and admiration of lady visitors, who went away rejoicing in the possession of numerous bargains. The sale is being held in order to advertise the work turned out by the Convent and was continued this afternoon and will conclude to-morrow.

Sentenced For Assault.

A row over the delivery of some oil yesterday between the representatives of two different houses led to a charge of assault, at the Magistracy this morning.

The Chinaman, who appeared in Court with a cut over his eye, which had been covered up with sticking plaster, and his clothes covered with blood, said that when they quarrelled the defendant attacked him with a chisel and inflicted the wound he was suffering from. The defendant was sentenced to three weeks' gaol, and a cross summons for assault brought by him was dismissed.
